City of Chico Fire Department

The City of Chico Fire Department has 75 fulltime personnel and 36 volunteer firefighters. The Department operates six fire stations, a Fire Training Center and over 30 pieces of emergency apparatus. Chico Fire serves a population of over 85,000 people in a 30 square mile area.

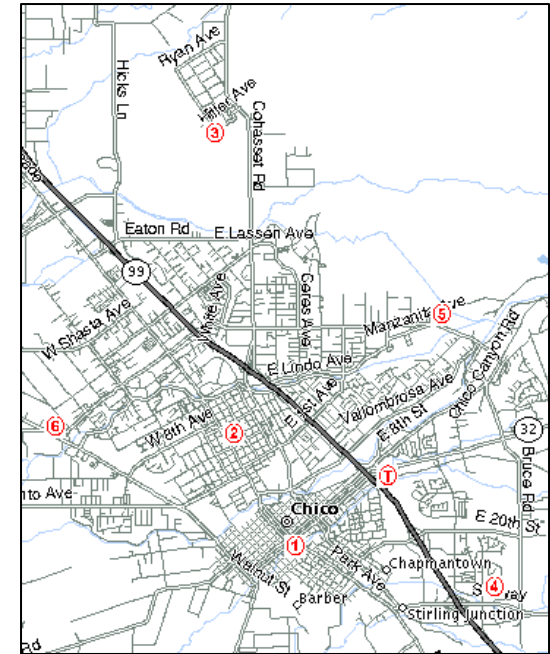

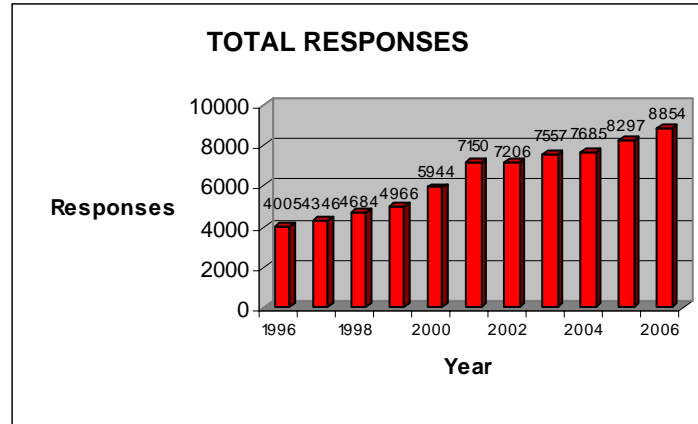

The Department maintains a fire insurance rating of ISO 2, the second highest possible on a rating scale of 10. This can result in substantial savings on fire insurance premiums. The average response time to emergencies in the city is about 4 minutes.

All firefighters are comprehensively trained. Certification is achieved through colleges, the California State Board of Fire Services, NorCal Emergency Medical Services, California Specialized Training Institute, the National Fire Academy, and others.

Approximately 28% of the City General Fund budget is spent to provide fire and rescue services.
