MAP

Built as a Work Program Administration (WPA) project in 1938, the amphitheater known as the Bidwell Bowl was one of many ventures in Chico that created work for people during the Great Depression. Located on the Chico State campus behind Bidwell Memorial Presbyterian Church at 1st Street & Esplanade, the Bidwell Bowl had been used for various gatherings. Concerts, speeches and other activities were held in the amphitheater's early history. Today the Bidwell Bowl Amphitheater is an excellent site to reserve for outdoor meetings, presentations and even weddings.

Amenities for Bidwell Bowl Amphitheater include:

- Seating for up to 300 people
- Standard household electrical outlets (15 amp). Located on the north side across Big Chico Creek and on the south side leading into Children's Playground.
- Restrooms are located across the street directly across from Children's Playground at Ringle Park (on West 1st Street).

Additional Information:

Please refer to your application & permit to review the conditions of park use. You are responsible for knowing the park rules.
