PARKS DIVISION OFFERS ANNUAL SPRING VOLUNTEER ORIENTATION

The City of Chico Parks Division will provide an orientation for people interested in becoming park volunteers on Thursday, March 30, 2017, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m., in the City Council Chambers located at 421 Main Street. There will be a general volunteer program overview and information presented by the Parks Division's partner organizations that collaboratively care for Chico's parks and greenways.

Specific Park Division volunteer functions such as Park Watch and the new Park Stewards program will be highlighted. Park Watch volunteers are ambassadors of Bidwell Park and provide visitors with information and inform park staff about damage, hazards, vandalism and other safety concerns. Park Steward volunteers assist in organizing and leading small groups that will perform task such as litter removal, vegetation maintenance, painting, trail maintenance and much more!
