Case summary:

On 11/14/2011 at 1752 hrs, Chico Police responded to a reported robbery in progress at the Tri Counties Bank at 780 Mangrove Ave in Chico. Upon Officers arrival, they learned that two suspects had just robbed the bank and had fled on foot, running in different directions. Officers located one witness who had seen two possible suspicious persons run to a white full size pick-up which was parked south of the Egg Roll King Restaurant and just north of the Salvation Army Thrift Store. The pick-up had left eastbound on Palmetto. Officers broadcast this possible description to surrounding agencies and began to search for that vehicle.

Moments later, a Butte County Sheriff's Deputy spotted the possible suspect vehicle travelling southbound Hwy. 99 near Southgate. Chico Police Officers responded to assist and a high risk stop was conducted on Hwy. 99 near Pentz Road.

The two occupants of the vehicle, Niko Arriva-Sarcaina and Paris Green were identified as being the persons who had robbed the bank. They were arrested and later booked into the Butte County Jail on charges of 211 PC- Robbery. Two replica handguns used in the robbery and the stolen cash were recovered inside the getaway vehicle.
